

Note: If you attended the August 1 conference, the content will be somewhat the same. You are welcome to attend again, however.

Whether you are experiencing memory loss yourself or are a caregiver for a family member or friend, you do not have to walk this road alone. There are others in your congregation and community that share your experience. You will learn about supportive resources within our community and be inspired by stories of folks who have lived this journey.

WHO SHOULD COME?

Caregivers for those touched by memory loss; care receivers are welcome
Clergy
Parish Nurses
Congregational Care Teams
Senior Services

WHY SHOULD YOU COME?

To meet others touched by memory loss
To find support & resources
To carry the message to congregations about ministry to families involved with memory loss
