Life Enrichment Classes

Monday, February 4

9:30 — 10:30 a.m.

GREAT DECISIONS: State of the Oceans: A Look at the World's Seas by Tom O'Toole, professor emeritus, St. Cloud State U. He discusses some consequences of climate change on sea levels and weather systems.

TRAVELOGUE: Lesser Known National Parks and Monuments by Faith Lindell, who made this trip over six weeks last summer. In this hour you will see some of the parks in northwestern U.S. as well as the central plains and some activities in those parks.

10:50 — 11:50 a.m.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH: Community Emergency Services by Pastor Lynn Peterson who serves and helps identify this organization to churches in the area. The C.E.S. is a local ecumenical outreach organization, serving all ages and multiple needs.

TRAVELOGUE: Repeat of 9:30 program

BIBLE AND FAITH: Waters of Life flowing through East Germany (3-part series) by Pastor Paul Rogers. We look at biblical imagery of water, applied to experiences of the Lutheran Church of the former German Democratic Republic (East Germany).

Monday, February 11

9:30 — 10:30 a.m.

HISTORY: Carl Ben Eielson, the Norwegian American Lindbergh by Lawrence Moe, professor of English at Metropolitan State . Eielson, the "Father of the Bush Pilots," died a North Dakotan hero in 1929 attempting a rescue mission.

TRAVELOGUE: France: Normandy and Brittany by Larry Turner, who takes us to the beaches of Normandy, Mont St. Michel, St. Malo, Roscoff, Quimper and Pont Aven — and for an encore, Paris.

10:50 — 11:50 a.m.

CURRENT ISSUES: Undocumented Youth as a Political Force by Juventino Meza and two students. Meza graduated in 2011 from Augsburg College, the first undocumented student in MN to have been elected Student Body President.

TRAVELOGUE: Repeat of 9:30 program.

BIBLE AND FAITH: Waters of Life flowing through East Germany (3-part series) by Pastor Paul Rogers. Today, Part 2.

Monday, February 18

9:30 — 10:30 a.m.

INTERNATIONAL: Palestine and Israel: An Extended Study Trip by Rev. Joseph Crippen, pastor of Mount Olive Lutheran Church. Sponsored by For Fair Witness in the Middle East, this study produced a few surprises for Pastor Crippen. And for you?

TRAVELOGUE: Three Historic German Cities: Dresden, Leipzig and Wittenberg by Dan Burow, retired pastor and curriculum editor-designer. This presentation is drawn from his recent trip to the Czech Republic and parts of Germany formerly ruled by communist governments.

10:50 — 11:50 a.m.

INTERNATIONAL VOLUNTEER SERVICE: Our Peace Corps Experience in Uganda by Ryan or Emily Kjesbo-Johnson. This young couple's Peace Corps service in Uganda focused on the development of life skills, leadership, and critical thinking. They will also discuss recent world news involving Uganda.

TRAVELOGUE: repeat of 9:30 program.

FAITH AND BIBLE: Waters of Life flowing through East Germany (3-part series) by Pastor Paul Rogers. Today, Part 3.

Monday, February 25

9:30 — 10:30 a.m.

NATIONAL: Pastoring and Piloting: Serving Both as a Pastor and Flying for the Military? by Jeff Smith, former youth pastor at Lake Nokomis and now assistant pastor at Glen Cary Lutheran in Ham Lake. Jeff still serves as an Air National Guard pilot and as such continues to make many trips to Iraq and Afghanistan for the Air National Guard.

TRAVELOGUE: The Netherlands and Even Smaller European Countries as presented by Rick Steves. We're seeing Luxembourg here and even smaller, startling, and highly scenic countries.

10:50 — 11:50 a.m.

CURRENT ISSUES: To Be Announced

TRAVELOGUE: repeat of 9:30 program.

FAITH AND BIBLE: George Washington, Revolution and the Bible by Dan Burow, retired pastor. From the American Revolution and earlier to the present day, those who try to live by biblical principles have been challenged by the question: May Christians ever go beyond loyal disobedience to violent overthrow of their government? If so, under what circumstances? Enter this fray with some of our great national heroes — and the Scriptures.
