Human Rights Day

This year's Human Rights Day theme relates to 'Equality' and Article 1 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights – "All human beings are born free and equal in dignity and rights." All of us have a role to play when it comes to addressing racial and gender inequities, centering equity in our decisions, and building inclusive workplaces. Lead with love. Be intentional about letting people know they are welcome and valued.

Be a Voice for your Community

Governor Walz is encouraging Minnesotans to apply for an open seat at 1 of over 100 boards, councils, commissions, and task forces. See what's open and where you could benefit the community with your voice. More info

Grand Avenue Reconstruction Project

Phase 1 of the project is wrapping up for the season. The last sidewalk on 48th Street is installed and boulevard restoration between 46th St and 48th St is continuing. Those last 2 blocks will open once all traffic signs are installed and the remaining construction activities are complete. Phase 2 work on Grand Ave between 38th St and Lake St will begin Spring 2022.

Life on the Southside

In this virtual event, African-American elders will share memories and stories about life in the integrated middle-class community on the Southside of Minneapolis before and after 35W. This program will highlight the narratives showcased in the exhibit, Human Toll: A Public History of 35W. Link
